Instructions: Ask community informants the questions below to help them name spots:

- Could you tell me where people go to meet new sex partners in this area?
- Can you tell me about any other public places where women might look for men to pay them for sex? Or where men look for sex workers?
- Can you tell me about any other public places where men who have sex with men socialize?
- We are also interested in places where people who inject drugs can be reached. Can you tell me about public places where people who inject drugs socialize? We don't want to know where they get drugs or use drugs, only where they socialize.
- Can you tell me about events where people might go to meet a new sexual partner?
- Which websites or phone numbers do people use to meet a new sex partner?
